

Employee Spotlight: Isabela Castillo-Martinez

Caring Team for Care Providers

At CuraScript SD by Evernorth, Caring for those who care® means providing the products, services and responsive support your practice needs to care for patients with confidence.

Whether you need an order fulfilled, an answer to a question or help resolving an issue, our teams work together to provide dependable support and make it easier to serve your patients.

Isabela Castillo-Martinez

As a Sales Operations Analyst, Isabela Castillo-Martinez collaborates across the organization to improve processes, address complex challenges and help your practice receive timely, accurate support. For Isabela, the most rewarding part of her role is making a difference for customers and the teams who serve them. "It's rewarding to know that the work we do behind the scenes helps create a better experience for our customers and supports the broader healthcare community."

Asked how she brings Caring for those who care® to life, Isabela said, "By approaching my work with accountability, collaboration, and a genuine commitment to helping others succeed. Whether I am supporting a teammate, improving a process, or resolving a customer issue, I strive to be someone others can depend on. I believe that taking ownership, building strong relationships, and consistently delivering results are meaningful ways to support those who care for patients every day."

Isabela and the Sales Operations team are committed to helping your practice operate smoothly so you can stay focused on caring for your patients.
